Cooking Classes Now Available at Tools of The Trade at Suntec City

Singapore, June 2015 – With the official opening of its second store in Suntec City Mall, Tools of The Trade (ToTT) now launches a new series of cooking classes at its 4,800 sq ft space.

Located in the heart of the city, ToTT @ Suntec boasts a 900 sqft open-concept cooking studio that is fully equipped with state-of-the-art kitchenware from KitchenAid, Jamie Oliver, Epicurean and home appliances sponsor Samsung. The new space holds 6 to 12 people in a more intimate and cozy setting, where cooking class participants' work stations are in close proximity with their culinary instructor's Chef Table. Bar stools around the Chef Table allow the space to double up as the perfect area for dining after cooking classes and as a space for coffee and tea appreciation classes.

Classes offered at ToTT @ Suntec are specially catered towards professionals working in the area and families shopping at Suntec City Mall. The new lineup of classes features couple's and kids' classes for date nights and family fun, as well as previously sold-out classes at the Dunearn studio. Class participants can look forward to whipping up a European spread with Chef Felix Chong of 63 Tapas Bar and gourmet French cuisine with Chef Susanne Despature. Aspiring bakers can hone their skills in expert pastry Chef Julie
